

PBS OZARKS
public television

Rose O'Neill

AN ARTFUL LIFE

AN OZARKS PUBLIC TELEVISION PRODUCTION

You and your guests are invited to a screening event at
The Historic Fox Theatre in Downtown Springfield
Saturday, November 2, 2024, 3pm-6pm

Please RSVP by Monday, October 28
 417.866.3500 | commentary@missouristate.edu

ORIGINAL ART BY
CHRISTINE RIUTZEL

PBS OZARKS
public television

Rose O'Neill

AN ARTFUL LIFE

Saturday, November 2
3:00pm – 8:00 pm

The Historic Fox Theatre
 157 Park Central Square
 Springfield, Missouri

Join Ozarks Public Television for our documentary presentation of Rose O'Neill: An Artful Life exploring the life and work of Rose O'Neill, renowned illustrator and creator of the world-famous Kewpie doll.

As an artist, writer, and suffragist, Rose's story serves as an important portrait of a modern woman in a changing world. Follow Rose's journey from a child prodigy to New York socialite and finally international millionaire, all while maintaining her connection to the enchanted Ozark forests of her youth. Explore beyond The Kewpies through Rose's fine art and sculptures that show a darker side to Rose's imagination. So please join us as we explore the seven decades of her remarkable life – from the enchanted forests of her youth, to the meteoric rise of her beloved Kewpies – and celebrate with us the enduring legacy and Artful Life of Rose O'Neill.

ITINERARY

Documentary Screening
 3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Producer Q&A
 4:30 pm – 5:00 pm

Reception
 (History Museum First Level)
 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm
 Complementary hors d'oeuvres and wine bar

Parking available nearby at
 Olive Street and Boonville Avenue

Support provided by:

GREAT SOUTHERN BANK

Jan & Gary Baumgartner