A Kewpie Halloween

April 15-19, 2026

www.irocf.org

Branson Towers Hotel, 236 Shepherd of the Hills Expressway, www.thebransontowers.com

We hope you have marked your calendars and are planning to join us for Kewpiesta 2026. The following will provide specific information about registration and the events we have planned. Items are arranged in the approximate order they occur.

When you arrive, you will want to pick up your registration materials. The times when registration will be open are outlined on the following schedule. Your registration envelope with your banquet ticket and any other tickets you may have purchased will be available as outlined in the schedule. If you prepaid for centerpiece or workshop tickets, these will also be included. Your nametag shows you have registered and is your entry ticket into each of our events. Trade Korner and the Auction are the only two events open to the public. Every other event requires that all individuals be registered to be eligible to attend.

Your registration fee includes your 2026 commemorative Kewpiesta pin and bag, name card (which acts as your ticket for entry into members only events, educational workshops/seminars), and banquet ticket. We are aware that some attendees will choose to not attend the banquet. In the event you do not plan to attend this special event, included on the registration form you will be given the option to receive Kewpie Kash. Kewpie Kash is non-transferrable and expires immediately following the Saturday Auction. It may be used to purchase items at the following events: IROCF Garage Sale, Bingo, IROCF table at Trade Corner, and the Saturday Morning Auction.

If you are a first-time attendee, you will find rooms along the corridor open with members selling and displaying Rose O'Neill and Rose O'Neill related only items. Don't be shy as you are welcome to enter. You will see rooms open whenever there are no Kewpiesta events scheduled.

Kewpiesta Registration: Please note, the cutoff date for receiving the group rate at the hotel is March 13. The reduced rate for Kewpiesta registration is April 1.

Garage Sale/Kewpie Kash

About the garage sale. Our organization has bags, pins, and other items that we have sold over the years. Before these things are offered for sale to the public, we thought we would give our members first crack at purchasing them. Also, there will be items donated by members, with all proceeds going to the club. Use your Kewpie Kash to help pay for your purchases! The garage sale will pop up from time to time at different events and is unscheduled.

IROCF & Bonniebrook Historical Meet & Greet Dinner

Join us at Bonniebrook for a gathering of IROCF and BHS members Wednesday evening. Pittsburg State University, Dr. Phillip Frank will be the featured speaker. His presentation will be, Building a Brand Before Branding: Kewpies and the Legal Origins of Advertising Identity. The menu will include strawberry spinach salad with candied pecans, fresh baked rolls, fire grilled chicken bruschetta, grilled steak and vegetable skewers, garlic roasted new potatoes, herbed fresh seasoned vegetables, garden fresh strawberry cake, and caramel turtle cheesecake. There is an extra charge for this event as reflected on the registration form.

Kewpie Kard Klass

Come join the fun and create your very own Kewpie Halloween card. Each person will have the opportunity to rubber stamp a unique holiday card. All materials necessary will be provided. The class will be limited to the first 50 who register. Registration is $5 per person.

Educational Programs

Please sign up for one or all these educational sessions. We need counts for handouts (if any) and room set up.

- The 3-Dimensional Kewpie: Once Rose gave birth to the first three-dimensional Kewpie, a flood of opportunities were unleashed for bisque Kewpies. Kewpies took on a life of their own as their popularity soared throughout the world. Explore the path they took.
- Rose's Circle of Contemporaries: Rose surrounded herself with a variety of artists, poets, musicians, sculptors, and authors. Many of Rose's properties provided an environment for friendship, support, opportunities, and encouragement. Be it at Washington Square, Carabas, on Capri, at Bonniebrook, or wherever they met inspiration and creativity was abundant. Though Rose was known to have supported legions of would-be professionals, there also were those who were successful, but may be obscure to most O'Neill collectors. Learn the connection between Rose and the buffalo nickel, Bye-Lo babies, and more.

- The Lady and the Ghost: In 1921, Dorothy Scarborough published a book containing 25 "modern" ghost stories. The book, Humorous Ghost Stories, features stories where ghosts are wrapped in cloaks of humor, satire, and sophisticated wrath. Authors included in the book you may recognize are Oscar Wilde (The Canterville Ghost) and Wallace Irwin (The Transplanted Ghost). The last story is The Lady and the Ghost, written and illustrated by Rose Cecil O'Neill, and originally published in Cosmopolitan, November 1902. Humorous Ghost Stories did not include the illustrations but listen now to the story and see the illustrations depicting the characters Rose created.

- Pursuing Footsteps (A Ghost of a Time): Don't Jump to conclusions, we are intending for you to have some fun and learn more about Rose O'Neill as well as her many wonderful comic creations. We will have a special guest appearance of Augustus Ghost, Rose O'Neill's renown ghostly character – Haunting Neatly Done satisfaction guaranteed. Another Rose O'Neill character, Frisky Freddy, a frog offering Jumping Instruction for Ten Bugs a Lesson, will also make an appearance.

- Kewpie♥Kins: One of the smallest vinyl Kewpies licensed by Cameo was the 4.5" Kewpie♥Kin issued in 1967. There were clothes, paper dolls, and a Kewpieville to put together that included Uncle Hob Goblin and Gooby Goblin. That was a lot for such a "little feller". Come to the show and tell to learn.
- Society of Ozarkian Hillcrofters: Founded in 1931, the Hillcrofters are dedicated to perpetuating the history, folklore, and traditions of the Ozarks. Notable original members included Vance Randolph, Rose Wilder, and Rose O'Neill.

Annual Business Meeting

Please bring your current membership card in order to vote on business during our meeting. Find out what is going on behind the scenes. This is your opportunity to ask questions and get answers. A group photo of members will happen immediately following the meeting. After the photo, Affiliate Presidents will have a short meeting.

All Affiliate Get Together

This is the opportunity for Club Affiliates to collect dues, display their drawing items, and sell drawing tickets. Drawing tickets are not to be sold at Trade Korner. There will be a $10 fee per affiliate for refreshments. Affiliates are NOT required to bring refreshments. The person leading the Affiliate should include the fee on their registration form, so we know who to contact in case of any questions.

Hidden Treasures

This is the time to share your hidden "treasures" at our annual Show and Tell. Have an item you'd like more information about? Bring it along and ask those in attendance. Find a rare item that no one has seen before? Bring it along to share with fellow lovers of all things Rose O'Neill. Have an item with a special story behind it? Bring it along too! Don't be shy – this is one of our members' favorite events.

Trade Corner

You must be an IROCF member and have registered for Kewpiesta to sell items from your room or rent a table(s). Trade Corner is open to the public.

Affiliate Dinners

This is the time to join an Affiliate for dinner! Contact your Affiliate to see if they will hold a dinner or join New Jersey. The New Jersey Professors will hold their dinner at the Golden Corral. Tickets will be on a first come basis. Sign up is available through your Kewpiesta Registration form. A waiting list will be compiled if necessary. The menu is choice of the extensive buffet menu which includes drinks and desserts.

Kewpie Bingo

Come join us for a relaxed evening of Bingo! Get to know Rose O'Neill through the Bingo squares. Kewpie prizes will be awarded. Entry fee is $5, which will be collected at the entrance.

Consignment Auction

The IROCF Consignment Auction rules are as follows:

1. The number of consignments will be limited to a maximum of 10 lots per consignee. Each of the 10 lots may consist of a single item or of multiple items.
2. Non-members and members may consign items to the auction.
3. All lots presented for auction must be Rose O'Neill or O'Neill related and must be valued at $100.00 or more.
4. All sellers will pay to the IROC Foundation a commission based upon the selling price of any item auctioned. The commission charged by the IROC Foundation will be $10.00 per lot auctioned or 10 percent of the selling price of the lot, whichever is greater.
5. Consignee may place a reserve on auction items. A $25.00 reserve fee will apply. A consignee may bid on consignee's lot and if the consignee is the high bidder, the commission will be based on the buyback price. Lots not meeting the reserve will not be sold. No commission will be charged if the lot does not sell.
6. Bidding will be by number. Numbers will be issued prior to the Consignment Auction. You must present photo ID to receive a bidder's number.
7. All purchases must be paid and signed for at the close of the Consignment Auction.
8. All persons who have sold items at the auction will receive their sales proceeds through the mail, after deduction of the appropriate commission, within two (2) weeks after the sale.
9. IROCF will not be responsible in any way for non-payment, bad checks or for non-negotiable payments. Such disputes are to be settled between the consignee and the purchaser.
10. Non-paying buyer's memberships will be REVOKED.

Our Banquet will be at the Keeter Center at the College of the Ozarks. Seating will be assigned, so please let us know with whom you'd like to sit. The food is excellent. Please choose from the Signature Pot Roast, slow-roasted beef and beef reduction served with garlic-roasted mashed potatoes and sauteed green beans, or Pan-Seared Atlantic salmon, wild rice pilaf with sauteed green beans, and lemon cream sauce on the side.
